

To 211B(2) please add Dementia(s) to the list for supplements. It should mean dementia in any form recognised now and new forms recognised in the future.

It is difficult to answer questions on other parts of this paper due to the amount of work that is currently being drafted. Further chances will be available to discuss new figures ????