

I really can't see how cutting domestic cleaning back to an hour a week is going to help the age people that live in their own homes. Some home in the country areas are around 400sqm. So is the age to live in a dirty home.. if so this is not a healthy and safe environment for our aged people. Is this not what the funds are used for to keep our aged in their own homes in a healthy and safe environment.