Aims are things you want to do.

They can

- Do things by themselves

- Have artificial intelligence

Artificial intelligence is when computers are able to do things like humans.

This could be things like learning how to fix problems.

We call it AI for short.

Some devices do

- Some of the task

- All of the task.

This means people do not need to do that part of the task.

Some of the ways to use smart appliances could be

- With a remote

- Being able to speak to it

This is called voice control.

- Being able to set it to work at a certain time

This is called programming.

The home appliances could be

- Machines that cook food

- Machines that help get food ready for cooking

We are not talking about home appliances that are
