

T10026

Residents should have the right to have cameras in their private spaces, such as their rooms. Signs can inform Staff entering the rooms that they may recorded. That's the only way that residents can be safe from potential abuse.