

T10076

I am disappointed to see the Chiropractic has not been included in the list of allowed Allied Health practitioners. Chiropractic has a long history and is supported by scientific evidence in treating the older patient. It not only aids in management for musculo-skeletal condition such as Hip denegation, often preventing painful and expensive surgical options, but in other areas such as balance and fall prevention